ORDER DISMISSING POST-CONVICTION RELIEF PETITION

This matter came on to be heard on June 5, 2014, upon the Petition for Relief from Conviction or Sentence filed by RASHII BRISBON on March 11, 2014. The Petitioner was present, along with his appointed post-conviction counsel, his two trial attorneys, and the Assistant District Attorney. When the case was called, the Petitioner, after being duly sworn, testified that he wished to dismiss his petition. The Petitioner further testified that he was satisfied with his post-conviction counsel's representation, and further that he had no complaints against either of his trial attorneys. The Petitioner further testified that had been given a sufficient opportunity to think these matters over, and that he no longer desired to pursue his post-conviction relief petition. Finally, the Petitioner acknowledged that he understood that by dismissing this petition, he would be forever waiving the claims raised therein. Accordingly, based upon the request of the Petitioner, his petition for post-conviction relief is hereby DISMISSED.

The Petitioner further made an oral motion for the waiver of Court costs and fines. The State objected, so the Court directed the Petitioner to file a written motion along with an Affidavit of Indigency for the Court's consideration.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
